

Edenark Group and Salama Heritage Ecovillage (SHE) Africa form Partnership

Edenark Group (<https://edenark.com/>), which offers the world's top environmental sustainability certification program; and Salama Heritage Ecovillage (SHE) Africa (https://www.facebook.com/sheafrika2022/?ref=page_internal) a Social Environment Enterprise (SEE) which promotes the transition to the Post 2015 UN SDGs / Africa Agenda 2063 and provides guidance and leadership to communities, businesses and governments; have formed a partnership.

The organizations recognize the synergy between their respective services and will promote the other's services to their respective clients.

Salama Heritage Ecovillage (SHE) Africa ("SHE") is involved with African water, sanitation, hygiene, environmental education, and management projects. SHE focuses on the Most Vulnerable Groups (MVGs), such as women, youths, children, the elderly and people with disabilities and drives green economic development, ethical and fair trade, sustainable tourism, sustainable development and resilient communities across Africa.

"The Edenark Group ISO 14001 sustainability certification is a natural progression for the organizations SHE works with," said Rosemary Olive Mbone Enie, CEO of SHE. "We look to bring this program to the business and government community we serve," added Enie.

"We support the work SHE does and believe our services are aligned," said David Goodman of Edenark Group. "We look forward to bringing the combined benefit of the two organizations to clients throughout Africa," added Goodman
